

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

June 13, 2006

ELITE ENTERTAINMENT TO RELEASE FIRST-EVER ONLINE HORROR SERIES ON DVD

“Shadow Falls”* First Title In Deal With The Horror Channel; Series To Premiere on Horrorchannel.com This Summer

Company Also Announces Acquisition of Documentary Series *“Creature Features: Greatest Movie Monsters”

Scarborough, ME/Guttenberg, NJ – Elite Entertainment, one of the leaders in the horror/cult/sci-fi DVD industry, and The Horror Channel, the premier television and internet-based venue for the best horror, terror and suspense programming, have announced their first project to be released on DVD, as part of their recent distribution agreement. “Shadow Falls,” the first-ever online horror series, premiering on The Horror Channel this summer, will be released on DVD by Elite Entertainment in the fourth quarter. The announcement was made by Vini Bancalari, President, Elite Entertainment. The company has also announced that it has acquired the DVD distribution rights to the three-part documentary series “Creature Features: Greatest Movie Monsters.”

“Shadow Falls represents a breakthrough in the area of broadband entertainment,” said Bancalari. “As the horror genre continues its unprecedented popularity in the feature film world, it’s a natural extension to have a series created exclusively for the internet. We’re fortunate to have this relationship with The Horror Channel, and look forward to more programming of this nature.”

“Shadow Falls,” from GunnPark Entertainment and writer, producer, director Kendal Sinn, is a 32-episode series (cut into four seasons), and takes place on a date sometime within the last few centuries. Each plot revolves around the small Midwestern town of Shadow Falls, with a population reduced to a prophetically-selected group.

GunnPark Entertainment plans to include a special bonus epilogue that will be available exclusively on the DVD release. A trailer for “Shadow Falls” can be viewed at www.horrorchannel.com.

Elite Entertainment has also announced that it has acquired the DVD distribution rights to the three part documentary series “Creature Features: Greatest Movie Monsters.” The series explores the most memorable and feared creatures ever to hit the silver screen. Through a powerful and wide-ranging selection of feature film clips, the series will examine the limits of human experience and imagination. The three titles are “The Beasts,” “The Machines” and “The Dead,” and feature scenes from such classic films as Jaws, The Birds, Alien, Terminator, Star Wars, The Shining, Friday the 13th and Psycho.

Elite Entertainment was founded in 1993. The company is currently one of the leaders in the restoration and distribution of horror, science fiction and cult DVD titles, including “Night of the Living Dead,” “Evil Dead,” “Tower of Evil” and “I Spit On Your Grave.” Other titles include the cult favorite “Horror,” a triple feature on the Masterworks of the German Horror Cinema, including the original silent films “Nosferatu,” “Der Golem” and “The Cabinet of Dr. Caligari,” the “Drive-In Discs™” series, and the popular Millennium Edition series, including “Night of the Living Dead,” “Re-Animator” and “I Spit On Your Grave.” Visit www.elitedisc.com.

The Horror Channel is the premier television and internet-based venue for the best Horror, Terror and Suspense programming. By licensing classic and contemporary movies, specials and series from the libraries of established distributors, as well as introducing original series, miniseries and films by top Horror filmmakers, The Horror

Channel will become the network of choice for Horror fans, filmmakers, authors and actors. Visit www.horrorchannel.com.

#

CONTACT: Josh Davidson
DAVIDSON COMMUNICATIONS
(914) 478-8810
davidsonpr@att.net